Happy Holidays,

I hope the season has started well for you. I have been busy getting ready for next year's classes and dances as well as the soon to be here Holidays.

The new class schedule is done and in this newsletter. I want to thank everyone that attended classes or dances this Fall. The attendance was very good this year especially considering the economy and the layoffs going around.

I have updated my flyers this year and added new classes as well as some really nice discounts. It was time to change the prices for the classes this year. With those changes I am also offering everyone $5.00 off for every NEW student you bring in that signs up for a 5 week series. With that you could actually take classes for free if you bring in enough new students. Check out the new prices and discounts on the Classes flyer.

Our Christian Single Dances have been very successful. With well over 200 people each month it is lots of fun. Just FYI The Barn can hold 400. You don't need to worry about it being too crowded. If you haven't made it to one yet, I am sure you would have a great time dancing and meeting new people.

You can see by the pictures this quarter that Madelynn likes her hair very short and she lost a couple of teeth. She also likes to do everything her big brother does, including what clothes he wears. She is our little Tom-Boy. But, she says: "I'M A GIRL".

We went to the Pumpkin Patch this year to keep up the tradition. We had a lot of fun at the farm. Daniel and Madelynn rode the ponies, picked out a couple pumpkins, did the hay ride and watched a man fling pumpkins out into the pasture with a catapult. It was a nice day off.

We have been enjoying Bowling, Ferry Rides and some Site Seeing here and there. The kids have been getting more time with Grandma & Grandpa (my parents) this year as well.

I found some spare time to get back to the little improvements and updates on The Barn again. It feels good to see the place getting closer to the vision I have for the place. There are many improvements that no one ever sees but as John Halloran says: "We know we did it and it needed to be done". So stay tuned for more improvements to better serve you.

Thank you to Don for the painting in the women's hallway and the foyer, Jack for helping build the wall in the foyer, Debbie for the decorating for the holidays and everyone for their wonderful support this year.

We have some "special" dances coming up so put them on your calendars. See the Dance flyer for more details.

Dave
